

THE LIBRARY'S CHILD

URSULA DUBOSARSKY

Look! Inside the library.
Who is it?
It's the Library's Child.

Lying, sitting, reading, running, wondering, walking, hopping, rolling, wishing,

peering, thinking, reading, hearing, squeaking, laughing, clapping, shouting, wanting,

listening, asking, reading, clutching, speaking, leaping,
reaching, needing, blinking,

finding, hiding, reading,
seeking, drawing, peeking, writing, staring, twisting,

feeling, turning, reading,
being, wanting, being,
being, hoping, being,
being, being ...

Reading.

The Library's Child.
